CONDITIONS OF SALE

ALL BIDS TO BE PER LOT AS NUMBERED IN THE CATALOGUE.

The highest bidder to be the buyer. In all cases of disputed bids the decision of the Auctioneer shall be final.

Buyers to give their names and addresses and to make such cash payments on account as may be required, in default of which the lots purchased shall be resold immediately.

Purchases to be removed at the buyer's expense and risk within twenty-four hours from the conclusion of the sale, and the remainder of the purchase money to be paid on or before delivery, in default of which The Anderson Galleries, Incorporated, will not be responsible for any loss or damage whatever, but the lot or lots will be left at the sole risk of the purchaser, and subject to storage charges.

All lots will be placed on public exhibition before the date of sale, for examination by intending purchasers, and The Anderson Galleries, Incorporated, will not be responsible for the correctness of the description, authenticity, genuineness, or for any defect or fault in or concerning any lot, and make no warranty whatever, but will sell each lot exactly as it is, WITHOUT RECOURSE.

If accounts are not paid and purchases removed within twenty-four hours of the conclusion of the sale, or, in the case of absent buyers, when bills are rendered, any sum deposited as part payment shall be forfeited, and The American Galleries, Incorporated, reserve the right to resell the lot or lots by either private or public sale, without further notice, and if any deficiency arises from such resale it shall be made good by the defaulter, together with all expenses incurred. This condition shall be without prejudice to the right of this Company to enforce the sale contract and collect the amount due without such resale, at its own option.

The Anderson Galleries, Incorporated, will afford every facility for the employment of carriers and packers by the purchasers, but will not be responsible for any damage arising from the acts of such carriers and packers.

The Anderson Galleries make no charge for executing orders for their customers and use all bids competitively, buying at the lowest price permitted by other bids.

CATALOGUES ON REQUEST

SALES CONDUCTED BY MR. F. A. CHAPMAN, MR. A. N. BADE AND MR. E. H. L. THOMPSON

THE present catalogue comprises the remainder of the great Collection of furniture, textiles and works of art gathered by the late Viscount Leverhulme—with the exception of the original drawings, prints and water colors, which will appear in the next catalogue. The whole of his rugs and carpets are included here, with many of the finest embroideries.

Mr. W. G. Thomson, the well known authority on tapestry and textiles, and author of "A History of Tapestry from the Earliest Times until the Present Day", writes specially:

"The Collection of Textiles at The Hill, Hampstead, is a revelation of the artistic instincts of the late Lord Leverhulme and his liking for representative specimens of the different schools . . . It is seldom that one sees together a set of Felletin hangings of such depth of colouring as Numbers 486-490. In the embroideries, the series of petit-point and stumpwork examples is one of the most extensive ever assembled, embracing many specimens of the first order,—some depicting Old Testament personages, such as Jacob, in fashionable Stuart attire, while others reflect the life of the country people of their time. Nearly all reveal the great technical excellence attained by the Stuart embroideresses. Amongst the carpets is the very rare set of three old Irish examples in brilliant colours, Numbers 491-493."

142 CHARLES II NEEDLEWORK PANEL

ENGLISH, CIRCA 1670

In silks and gold thread, using long and short stitches, couching, knotting, openwork and lace stitchery on a white satin ground sprinkled with sequins and spangles, and representing part of the story of Esther, who appears in the centre under an arcade surmounted by a rainbow supported by clouds in the Chinese manner. Below her is a fish pond containing a mermaid and fish, and a rocky background with a bowl, flanked by vessels of arabesque shape discharging water. On the left she is represented at her feast with the King and Haman under scrolled arcading entwined with vine, honeysuckle and rose. On the right, under similar arcading the King sits on a throne, sceptre in hand, while part of the next panel shows a lady-in-waiting. The Honoring of Mordecai, crowned and riding on the King's horse led by Haman, is represented below, and the gallows with the body of Haman in the left hand corner ends the story. In the upper corners are pear and apple trees. The ground is decorated with many objects—monkeys, giraffe, deer, squirrels, peacock, stork, and various birds, beetles, snails, caterpillars, butterflies, adder, clouds, star, plum trees, flower sprays and building.

Height, 37½ inches; length, 16 feet 6 inches; depth, 35½ inches
This table was purchased by Viscount Leverhulme from Mr. E. Butler of Dublin in 1914. It was the original Speaker's Table of the old Irish House of Commons. It was stored with Messrs. Strahan & Co., 15 St. Stephen's Green, Dublin, and was retained there with the idea of presenting it to the New United Irish Parliament. While it was in storage, the fighting in Dublin was going on all around, even in the next house. When events proved that the United Irish Parliament was a thing of the future, the table was removed to London, in 1923.

ONE OF A PAIR OF SEVENTEENTH CENTURY
AUBUSSON TAPESTRY PANELS

[NUMBER 190]

EGYPTIAN ANTIQUITIES

NUMBERS 199-236

The following Egyptian Antiquities were purchased by Lord Leverhulme at the dispersal of the Collection of the late Colonel Evans, of Merle, Slingfold, Sussex, the well-known Egyptologist, at Sotheby's, in June, 1924. When in 1895 the Burlington Fine Arts Club held its first Exhibition of Egyptian Antiquities, Colonel Evans was one of the chief exhibitors, and most of his exhibits were included in the Sotheby sale in 1924.

The Egyptian Bronzes are of the Eighteenth to the Twentieth Dynasty (1580-1090 B.C.), the small section described as of the "Romano-Egyptian Period" being, of course, much later (30-400 A.D.)

- 282 SEMI-ANTIQUÉ KASHAN SILK PRAYER RUG
The centre field with graceful niche supported by elaborate columns; the field of the niche with delicate vines and palmette flowers on silver-grey background. Four borders, the main one of arabesques and palmette flowers on deep blue background. This type of silk rug, about 60 to 70 years old, is of rather delightful mellow colors and is in no way to be confused with modern silk rugs. (Worn)

Size, 6 feet x 4 feet

- 283 LARGE HERAT RUG EASTERN PERSIA
Centre field with central cartouche of arabesques and palmettes on deep indigo-blue and with corner motifs of similar design, set in a magenta-red field with profuse vine and palmette flower decoration. Five borders, fifteen guard stripes; the main border of rosettes and floral vines on mulberry-red.

Size, 30 feet 3 inches x 18 feet 4 inches

350- In appliqué embroidery on a blue ground. The niche is occupied by a black vase decorated with light ornamental discs, and a gold basketwork shield. It contains a large bunch of roses and other flowers, and rests on a double stand, with small cypress trees between the supports. The columns are decorated with black cartouches. The arch is composed of arabesques in gold stitchery and the ground inside it is of dark wine-colored velvet. The arch terminates in a form suggestive of a lamp. The spandrels are filled with branches of leaves and flowers. Narrow black bands divide the border into three stripes, and white ogee bands divide the two edging stripes into panels, containing floral ornament. The main stripe is decorated with black appliqué vases, enriched with gold shields, from which spring extremely conventional flowering plants.
